GOOD YEAR FOR CORN.

Crops Throughout Country,

Washington, Nov. 12.-The cropcerting board of the bureau of statistics C. H. Kendrick & Co. of the department of agriculture at Washington finds, from the reports of its rrespondents and agents, as follows; he preliminary returns on the produc-on of corn in 1906 indicate a total yield about 2:857,096,000, or an average of 2 bushels per acre as compared with an average yield of 28.8 bushels as finally estimated in 1905 and a 10 year average of 25,2 bushels, this and other prelim-inary estimates of yield made yesterday are subject to revision when the final estimates are made next month. The general average as to quality is 89.9 per cent, as compared with 90.6 last year. It is estimated that about 4.3 per cent, of the corn crop of 1905 was still in the hands of farmers on November 1, 1906, of the corn crop of 1905 was still in the hands of farmers on November 1, 1906, as compared with 3.3 per cent of the crop of 1904 in farmers' hands November 1

DOMINION COMPANIES DISAGREE. Controversy Affects $60,000,000 of Property and Thousands of Employees. Sidney, B. C., Nov. 12 .- Property valed at more than $60,000,000 and thousands of employees are affected by a controversy between the Dominion Coal company and the Deminion Iron and Steel company regarding a contract en-tered into in 1963, whereby the coal company agreed to supply the steel plant 800,000 tons of coal a year at $1,25 a ton, says a despatch from Sydney, C. B. One result of the difficulty has been the closing of many of the blast furnaces and other departments by the steel corporation, which has but its payrolls the names of 4,000 hands coal of suitable quality to enable it to operate its plant. The contract has been suspended, and it is announced that the case will be taken into court.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how polgnant would be its suffering; for how polynant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its beart, and that its beauty and fragrancwere doomed forever. Nature alwayspares the suffering; she is a vertisoly store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her ald.
